To

The Deputy Commissioner
Bangalore Dt

Sir,

With reference to your Memo No 270 dated 16 Sept. 93, returning the correspondence anent the Gratuitous feeding in the Chatrams established at Bidar for further report, I beg to submit as follow.

These Chatrams were first established by the late Dewan Purniya during his administration of this State during the minority of the late Maharajah Krishnaraja Wadiyar and they still go by his name. The original intention so far I know was to give every assistance to poor travellers who under the old system of the country travelled on foot and was specially intended to feed Brahmins of Smartha and Madhwa sects and also to give raw rations to the other sects of travellers, who have scruples to partake in the cooked meals prepared by Chatram servants. To meet this object special establishments were entertained by the appointment of a cook an assistant to the Cook a store keeper and two worshippers, viz: Elay Gnudakshate" Aravadya Samarpane Brahmins and these offices are still in existence in all Chatrams all over the Province. The office holders are a sort of hereditary servants.

By the opening of Railway is true most of the travellers or pilgrims in affluent circumstances travel by rail yet there are many travellers though in good circumstances do not avail the facility of such travelling being influenced by religious points of view and other vows. These and other poor travellers who are unable to pay railway fares generally travel by road on foot. They halt at different stages where Chatrams are established for a day or so. as they generally travel without utensils and other Conveniences they will have to starve if the cooking in the Chatrum were to be discontinued and the Establishment done away with. The present arrangement of giving raw rations to travellers may appear to be sound in principle yet it has its drawbacks The travellers who have to get their raw ration from the Contractor generally prefer to receive half or any value thereof instead of the rations to avoid the trouble of cooking the meals by themselves and use the money they thus get in buying fruits through they go half starved. In such Cases what the Chatrum Establishment used to pilfer from the provisions supplied to the Chatrums goes under the present arrangement to the Contractor. Charity not reaching wholly to those for whom they are intended arrangement. But however in adhering to the long established practice of feeding in the Chairman there is the satisfaction of relieving the needy traveller of his hunger and this assistance is thankfully accepted by the helpless, sick and Juvenile travellers. And further it will not necessitate the Government to find appointments for those who may be thrown out of employ in other such institutions or to continue payments to them while unemployed. They are generally not fit for service in any other department. If you are still of the opinion to do away with the feeding and the establishments, I beg to suggest that it may be carried out by absorbing such appointments as vacancies occur by the demise &c. of the present office holders and to close feeding in the Chatram gradually when the present servants of the institutions are thus eliminated.

Orders to the effect that as vacancies occur in the religious institutions, the appointment may be done away with, were issued by the Mysore Superintendent with respect to all religious institutions in the Mysore District and the same may be advantageously adopted to the cases of the Servants of the Bidar arrangement of dealing raw cotton to the trade not in vogue in other Cotton substitutions in this and other Districts. —

I beg to remain &c
